

Do you want flexible, rewarding work, generating extra income, and fitting around your other commitments?

Have you considered working in care and wellbeing with its' range of opportunities?

Working locally, you'd be helping people remain in their own homes

You will receive one to one support with potential access to a small fund to help you become a self-employed provider

For more information contact:

enquiries@ayrshirebeats.co.uk