

Autism Support Ayrshire

Our Autism Support Ayrshire service provides free and confidential information, advice and guidance to individuals, parents, carers and professionals in North, South and East Ayrshire.

All our services are free and include:

- Autism information and guidance
- Workshops
- Signposting
- Access to other National Autistic Society Scotland programmes
- Online social activities for young people over 12 and adults - including our online Coffee Club and our Social Navigation programme.

There is no need to have a formal diagnosis, we can offer information pre, during and post assessment/diagnosis.
